EXTENT OF THE LAW.

Dee Grace Is Held Over For Grand Jury Action—A Bad Negro.

Ed Reese's Food For Petty Larceny Other Cases in the Police Court.

Dee Grace will not have his liberty for many a long day. Grace is "black and sassy," and was charged jointly in the police court this morning with maliciously assaulting Mr. Evan Johnson, of the Wm. Clarke Tobacco Works, on North Fifth street. Charles Rice, colored, was charged with a breach of the peace.

The evidence showed that Mat and Dee Grace seized Mr. Johnson on the street and held his arms. Dee Grace striking him with his fist and Mat Grace cutting him two or three times in the back with his knife. Mr. Johnson jerked loose and ran, gaining some advantage in distance while the negroes stopped to pick up rocks. He reached the stemmery, with his assailants in close pursuit, by dodging in an alley. They then began to throw bricks through the front door and windows.

Grace candidly admitted that he and his brother assaulted Mr. Johnson, saying that they heard he was going after the police, and for this reason attacked him. He also admitted that he threw a rock through the window.

In the malicious assault case he was held to answer in the sum of $500, and for throwing the rocks was given the full extent of the law, $100 and fifty days in jail.

Rice proved that he had nothing to do with either case, and was acquitted.

Thomas Carter, a colored tramp, was arrested last night on suspicion, and a pistol was found concealed on his person. He was fined $25 and given ten days in jail.

Sol Glass and J. A. Payton were arrested late yesterday afternoon with a woman of questionable character in a wagon with them; she occupying a seat on one's lap. They were fined $5 and costs each.

Maj. John M. Burke a Filibuster.
Tampa, Fla., March 9.—Maj. Jno. M. Burke has left Tampa with a party of Cubans, bound for Cuba, the whole making one of the boldest expeditions ever sent out from the United States.

Maj. Burke is well known by all American citizens, having been connected with Buffalo Bill's Wild West show for years. He came here two weeks ago and he wanted to procure a lot of Cubans for an insurance company for the show.

The party when formed proceeded to Port Tampa and took passage ostensibly for Key West on the steamer Olivette.

It is not known here what the Key West arrangements are, but there are good reasons to believe that a boat not heretofore in the filibustering business has been engaged for the trip to Cuba.

WAITING FOR THE VERDICT.

The Report of the Court of Inquiry Expected to Be Made Public Friday or Saturday.

England May Turn Over Her Warships to the United States in Case We Go to War With the Spanish Nation.

CUBA MUST BE FREED.

Though the President Would Like to Accomplish It Without a Resort to War.

WAR PREPARATIONS CONTINUE.

Seamen, Marines and Militia Recruited Today With Greater Rush Than Any Day Before.

RUMORED REPORT OF THE NAVAL BOARD.

Washington, March 10.—The administration is watching today for the report of the Naval Court of Inquiry. That report is expected to be made public this week without fail.

There is no doubt but that President McKinley has definitely made up his mind to free Cuba. Though it is no secret that he would be glad to attain this result without a resort to war with Spain.

It is rumored here today that the Naval Board of Inquiry has decided upon its secret and that the Maine was blown up by Spanish treachery. It is also said that a recent report of its verdict has been sent to the president today, thought this rumor lacks confirmation.

A motion was made today in the English House of Commons that England tender the United States her warships in case of a war with Spain.

The war preparations are being rushed today with greater rapidity than at any time before. Seamen, warriors, and militia are being recruited as fast as possible.

It is still considered here that war is inevitable; that the president will make demands upon Spain that she will not grant, and that the intervention in behalf of Cuba which is sure to take place will force Spain into war, or to back down completely and acquiesce in all our demands.

Washington, March 10.—President McKinley will tonight take charge of four big steamships of the American Line. They will be fitted up for war service and commanders put in charge of them to be ready for any emergency. This notion is regarded as conclusive that the president sees that war is inevitable.

Washington, March 10.—The senate passed the $50,000,000 defense bill without any debate.

The yeas and nays were taken on the passage of the bill, but there was not a dissenting vote. All pairs were broken and those present voted in the affirmative. Seventy-six senators voted for the bill.

Partisanship gave way to patriotism in the senate when the $50,000,000 defense bill was reported for passage, and it was quickly determined to outdo the house in prompt action. While some senators had manifested a disposition to delay action until more light on the Cuban situation had been placed before the senate by the President, when the test came, they wisely withheld their objections and agreed to act with the majority for the national defense.

Perhaps never before in the history of the country has there been such unanimity of purpose as has been shown by the American congress in this emergency.

Europe War Clouds.

Russia Evidently Getting Ready For a War of Her Own.

New York, March 10.—European cables state that Russia has just negotiated a war loan of 80,000,000 rubles ($14,000,000). This is taken as an evidence that Russia is preparing for war with Japan. The Euro-

Robertson's brother, Dr. J. D. Robertson, is a councilman, and this may give him a strong support.

Councilman Smith's ordinance, the substance of which is given elsewhere, is believed to be a good as well as original one, providing for small fees while the money comes in fast, and larger fees as the collections become fewer and more difficult.

Today two additional candidates were made known, Mr. Sam B. Caldwell and Capt. Wm. Kraus, who will no doubt form strong factors in the fight, as will Prof. Lyon and Mr. Joe Yeler.

George Ward Struck By a Train Yesterday.

The Victim Died of His Injuries Last Night.

George Ward, an aged negro who occupies a shanty near the Tennessee street crossing of the Illinois Central, is the name of the man mentioned in yesterday's Sun as having been struck by a train at Tennessee street.

Ward is deaf, and was walking along with his head down when the train struck him and threw him into a ditch, breaking his right arm and painfully bruising and cutting him. He was picked up and carried to the home of Tom Young, on Plunkett Hill, and City Physician Rivers dressed his wounds.

Ward was internally injured, and owing to his age was too weak to stand the shock. He died at 9 o'clock last night, and the remains were buried today.

Ward is the old man whose shanty was looted by tramps a week or two ago.

RECEPTION TO MEMBERS.

Preparations For a Y. M. C. A. Event Next Tuesday.

The Young Men Will Enjoy a Banquet and Good Speeches.

The first reception to members given since Secretary A. Knox took charge of the Paducah Young Men's Christian association will be given next Tuesday evening at the association headquarters. Preparations are now being made for it by Secretary Knox and the ladies' committee.

The reception will be to members only. No ladies will be present, although the ladies' committee will furnish the refreshments.

There will be a pleasant evening for all who attend, and all the members are urged to be present. During the serving of refreshments in the gymnasium, there will be short talks by various prominent speakers.

The refreshments will be served by young men. The reception will be partially to arrange for the big reception on the 26th and 27th inst.

EXPERT ENGINEER.

Will Be Here to Assist in Sewerage Work.

Work on the lateral sewers will not begin until Monday. An expert engineer to run the engine will be here tomorrow from Chicago, and work will then be rushed.

Supt. Erler is to do all the work. Messrs. Halloran & Wilcox simply furnishing the material.

The timber work, or bracing, in the big Third street ditch, to prevent a collapse of the ditch, is entirely new here, and is well worth going to inspect.

The work on the laterals, as stated several days ago, cannot begin until connection is made at Jefferson street, and this will not be until Monday.

The candidates at present are: Messrs. George Robertson, Fendall Burnett, Ed Ware, Ed Ashbrook, Joe Yeler, H. F. Lyon and J. Henry Smith.

There will likely be other candidates, but it is thought that the race will be between Messrs. George Robertson and Fendall Burnett, both of whom were leaders in the late municipal democratic campaign. Mr. Fendall gave way to patriotism in the senate when the $50,000,000 defense bill was reported for passage, and it was quickly determined to outdo the house in prompt action. While some senators had manifested a disposition to delay action until more light on the Cuban situation had been placed before the senate by the President, when the test came, they wisely withheld their objections and agreed to act with the majority for the national defense.

Perhaps never before in the history of the country has there been such unanimity of purpose as has been shown by the American congress in this emergency.

GRAVES COUNTY TRAGEDY.

An Orphan Girl Shot and Killed By Her Playmate. She Loaded the Pistol.

The Boy Did Not Know It Was Loaded, and Shot Her Unintentionally Between the Eyes.

A terrible fate overtook little Beta Norman, an orphan girl aged eleven years, in Graves county about five miles from Fulton, yesterday afternoon. She was shot between the eyes by an old pistol in which she had playfully placed a cartridge, and died soon afterwards.

The orphan girl had been making her home with the mother of Cecil Williams, 18 years old. She was raised there, and she and the boy were playmates and companions.

Yesterday afternoon the family left the two children alone at home, and while at play the girl slipped the cartridge in the old pistol, unobserved, and when the boy innocently snapped it, it was discharged, the ball penetrating her forehead.

The boy frantically went for help, but nothing could be done for the dying victim. She expired in a short time.

There was great sorrow in the neighborhood where the tragedy occurred.

The Illinois Central Enters Into A New Agreement With the City.

The Illinois Central railroad company has agreed to furnish the city with half-fare rates to all points in its various divisions in charity cases, upon written application of the mayor.

Under the old plan, tickets were sold for half fare only to Memphis and a short distance up the road, but the present agreement is a great improvement, and will save the city considerable money.

Paducah, Ky.

Extract of an editorial taken from the Western Review of Commerce, published at Chicago, Ill., dated November 19 last:

A Compliment to Paducah...

When we recommend an article or product it is accepted without question that we have thoroughly satisfied ourselves, by severe tests, of its value and worth, and that it is all that it may claim to be. The foregoing is sufficient to illustrate our position, and to justify what we may say when we make specific recommendation and extend our editorial commendations to the Brook Hill Garrard county, Kentucky, whiskey, distilled by Friedman, Keiler & Co., of Paducah, Ky. Both dealers and consumers can rely upon the character of the products of this firm, both in general and in particular, and we have no hesitancy in recommending them to our readers. Although we have no personal interest in the matter whatsoever, we believe in the policy, "merit to whom merit is due." In the light of too frequent adulterations and preparations of liquors, it behoves every one to scrutinize every brand, but, from the lack of proper facilities, such precautions are often neglected. To supply such want we have caused to be made close and critical examination and a searching chemical analysis, with the intention of printing the same, whether favorable or otherwise. The result, however, leaves us but one thing to do, and that is to state, regarding the Brook Hill Whiskey, that pure or better liquor has never been placed upon the market, and we recommend same to our readers in unqualified terms and advise them to place an order, at least for a trial, as their product is recommended by physicians as an aid to digestion, and is placed on our list of pure and wholesome food supplies.

The Brook Hill Whiskey is also bottled in bond, under the direct supervision of the United States internal revenue department, which is a guarantee of its absolute purity, age and excellence. Sold by all the leading drug stores, saloons and club rooms.

THURSDAY, MAR. 10, 1898

We wish the Mayor would declare the dust, that made life a burden yesterday, "null and void." There will be no appeal from such a decision.

PRESIDENT MCKINLEY and Consul-General Lee both well pleased power. They know what war means. The honor of the nation is safe in their hands.

Some people are born kickers. Thus we hear complaints that the President did not call for $100,000 instead of only half that sum.

We wonder where these warlike people will be when the call for troops is issued.

The vote on the Goebel election bill when it comes back to the Legislature adorned with the Governor's veto, will show what members have the courage to stand by their convictions and those who are willing to be the pliant tools of a conscientious political boss. It will be a rare test of manhood, but many there will be who will be found wanting.

The intentions of those Democrats who are calling on ex-Governor Brown to announce as a candidate for the governorship at the hands of the Democracy, are doubtless honorable; but they are wasting their time, the cards being already stacked for Senator Goebel, and at the proper time the free silver Czar of Kentucky will assemble himself in convention and declare himself nominated—and then the fun will begin.

GAG RULE.

The action of the Kentucky State Senate yesterday in amending the rules so as to allow only thirty minutes debate on any measure that may be indicated by the Committee on Rules is the most partisan action of the partisan majority of the Legislature. It has turned over to Senator Goebel and his followers the absolute control of the Senate proceedings during the remainder of this session. The adoption of this gag rule shows how desperate and high handed the Goebelites are. In their eyes the Democracy of Kentucky is merely a tool to be used to advance Senator Goebel's personal ambitions. Although the record of Goebel fails to show one single reason why he, rather than any other Democrat, should be the Democratic nominee for Governor, yet he has been able to subordinate every act of this Legislature to his presumptuous ambition. The passage of the Goebel Election bill may make its author the Democratic nominee for Governor, but it will not elect him before the people.

The voters of Kentucky are not so many sheep to be driven to the support of any man or measure. If the history of the past few years in this state demonstrates any one thing beyond the shadow of a doubt, it is that the people of the state cannot be whipped into line by any one man or set of men. The voters of Kentucky think for themselves and will resent as they have done in times past, any attempt of the bosses to control their individual action. The Goebelites know this, but they hope to be able by means of the machinery put in their hands by the infamous Election Commission measure, to overrule the will of the people.

A few years ago when the so-called Force bill was under discussion in Congress, no people were more outspoken or felt themselves more outraged than did the men who are now endeavoring to fasten upon the people of Kentucky the Goebel bill. The Force bill did guarantee a fair and free count, but this bill has not one iota of fairness in its whole composition, and is simply partisan ship run mad, and the embodiment of fraud and corruption.

THE GOVERNOR AND THE LAW To paraphrase one of Grover Cleveland's succinct sayings, the present Legislature "has a Governor on its hands" and none who knows more of law than any of the leaders of the Democratic majority at Frankfort. Thus while the free silverites constitute the Governor reads law. Now that the Prison Commission bill has become a law, apparently, the Governor calls attention to section 93 of the constitution, which provides that "inferior state officers not specifically provided for in this constitution may be elected," etc., "for a term not exceeding four years." As a part of the proposed prison commission is to be elected for six years according to the terms of the bill it would seem that a constitutional snag has been struck, which kills the law.

SEÑOR POLO DE BERNABE,
NEW SPANISH MINISTER TO THIS COUNTRY.

The Governor has also called attention to another innocent little section of the constitution, which would of itself render both the Prison Commission law inoperative and the Goebel Election bill also should it become a law. Section 55 of the constitution, provides that after an emergency is declared and the reasons given therefor the act may become a law when approved by the Governor. The Governor having failed to approve the law, it can not go into effect until ninety days after adjournment, thus postponing its effectiveness. No election can be held of either the prison commissioners, or election commissioners until the laws go into effect, which will not be until ninety days after the adjournment.

Whether or not the Governor's reasoning be correct his suggestions have already given the Democrats at Frankfort a regular Klondike chill.

Dr. Will Saunders moved his family back to the country, to their pretty summer home in Arcadia. Dr. Saunders will still keep office hours in town.

MOIRE VELOURS FOR EVENING. Moire velour in pale, delicate colors, is exceedingly fashionable for evening wear, and in this material pinks, both of rose and salmon hues, and white in cream or ivory are especially attractive.

A dainty yellow, somewhat paler than daffodil, and rather deeper than primrose, is also much in favor, usually trimmed with violets or purple pansies or orchids of iris in shades of pale and heliotrope.

On a pink gown, black lace of the light open type is most useful and effective, and this combination is shown in a gown where black insertion lace forms stripes down the skirt, which is finished with fans of lace and bows of moire. The skirt is tightly trained with close sides, and the bodice is also tight-litting, but has a poached front striped with lace. The sleeves consist of a small puff of moire, with two frills of lace nearly covering the puff, and the neck and front have an arrangement of lace and traces of handsome jet passementerie forming a square. This makes a charming dinner toilet and long transparent sleeves can be added and the neck partially filled in with folds of tulle or chiffon, if desired.

Just what the skirts of real summer wear will be made of has not yet been revealed. Pique and duck, so highly favored for two summer seasons, will not be considered the ultra-fashions of the coming summer. Of this much I am quite certain: Black and gray poplin skirts will have a decided vogue. I am rather inclined to think poplin will be the one fabric of all others in the lead for the everyday summer skirt. It is an excellent material, for it sheds dust, does not spot when sprinkled, and if sponged before making up, will not shrink.

Mr. Will Noble has gone to Hot Springs.

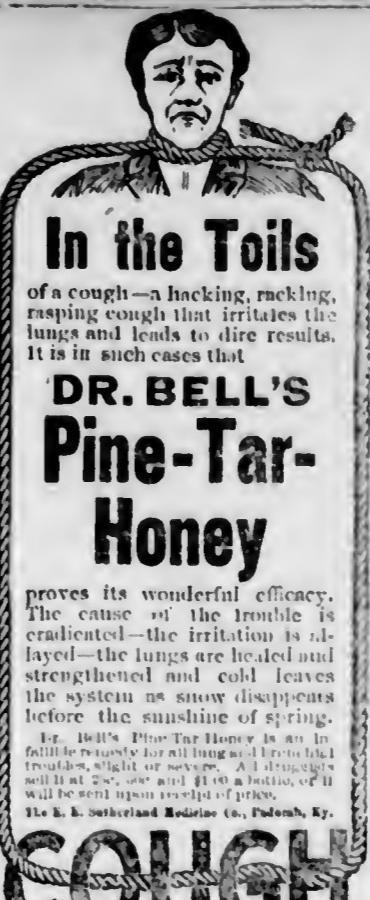

Mrs. G. D. Palmer has returned from New York, after a visit to her brother, Prof. Albert G. Reed.

Miss Evaline Long arrived yesterday on a visit to her aunt, Mrs. Cochran, on North Fourth street.

Miss Laura Chapman and Mr. Brack Owen were married yesterday morning at the home of Dr. Embanks. Miss Chapman has lived in Paducah for several years and was a very popular teacher in the public schools. Mr. Owen is one of our best known citizens and is of the firm of Cochran & Owen. The wedding was a very quiet affair only a few of their relatives being present and immediately after the ceremony they left on an extended trip.
